Declaration of Nancy Rotering,
Friedman v. City of Highland Park, No. 1:13-cv-09073 (N.D. Ill. June 30, 2014) (Dkt. 45-1)

DECLARATION OF NANCY ROTERING

I, Nancy Rotering, under penalty of perjury as set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1746 declare as follows:

1. I serve as the Mayor of the City of Highland Park, Illinois ("City"). I have served the City as Mayor since May 2011. Prior to being elected as Mayor, I served as a member of the City Council from May 2009 until May 2011.

2. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth in this Affidavit and can testify competently to such matters.

3. I was born in the City of Cincinnati, Ohio in 1961 and have lived in Highland Park for all but 18-years of my life.

4. As the legislative body for the City, the City Council is responsible for making policy and enacting laws that protect and preserve the public health, safety, and welfare of City residents, businesses, and visitors. Specifically, the City Council has the duty to prevent, to the greatest extent practicable, the commission of violent crimes within the City.

5. On June 24, 2013, the City Council adopted City Ordinance No. 68-13, prohibiting the manufacture, sale and possession of assault weapons and large capacity magazines within the City ("Ordinance"). A true and correct copy of the Ordinance, which bears my signature, is attached to this Affidavit as Exhibit A.

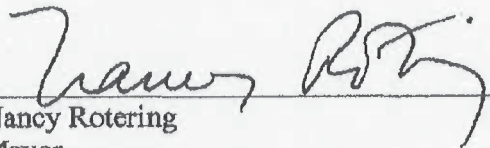

6. The City modeled its Ordinance after Cook County's assault weapon ban; with only minor non-substantive exceptions, the City's Ordinance is identical to the County's.

7. The City deliberately chose Cook County's ordinance as a model because it has recently survived equal protection and vagueness challenges before the Illinois Supreme Court.

8. As set forth in the Ordinance, the City Council believes that assault weapons pose an undue threat to public safety for the residents, property owners and visitors to the City.

9. The City Council also expressed its concern that the recent mass shooting tragedies in Aurora, Colorado, Newtown, Connecticut, Tucson, Arizona and Santa Monica, California, could occur in Highland Park, unless proper public safety measures are taken. As Mayor, and as a mother of four, I am particularly concerned about preventing a school shooting similar to the massacre at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown. That is what was on my mind throughout our consideration of the Ordinance: how unlikely an assault weapon massacre was in Newtown and how similar our communities are. I could not shake the thought that we could just as easily be those panicked and grief-stricken parents. In a similar vein, I wrote a letter to the Mayor of Aurora, Colorado, in the wake of their gun-related tragedy, empathizing with the agony his community was experiencing. Lastly, the tragedy that occurred when Laurie Dann attempted to ignite an incendiary device at one of our Highland Park elementary schools, then went on a shooting rampage at another school in nearby Winnetka was also on my mind. My concern for how vulnerable our schools and schoolchildren are played into our need to pass the Ordinance.

10. The City Council believes that the City is not immune to gun violence, particularly gun violence involving assault weapons, and that the weapons pose a dangerous threat in the City and other suburban areas.

WHEREAS, to date, the State has failed to enact a statewide ban on the sale or possession of assault weapons; and

WHEREAS, on May 31, 2013, the Illinois General Assembly approved House Bill 183, as amended, which Bill contains a provision that would preempt the home rule authority of the City to regulate the possession or ownership of assault weapons, unless the City adopts such a regulation not later than 10 days after House Bill 183 becomes law; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the home rule powers of the City, and in order to protect both the home rule authority of the City and the public safety and welfare, the City Council desires to amend Chapter 134 of the City Code to prohibit the manufacture, sale, ownership, acquisition, or possession of assault weapons within the City; and
